

People who have been helped by the ADRN staff have told us:

"I want to say thank you for coming to our home and providing us with such informative information. Being able to share the details of our situation was quite helpful. Thank you for giving us the good tools and guidance in this journey of uncharted territory. You truly are wonderful."

"I am writing to thank you for your help and involvement in my prescription drug program. I had no idea the changes could be so significant. I really appreciate how you helped me save money."

"We are ever so grateful for all your efforts on our behalf. During this very difficult time you have helped to clarify our options and lead us to various avenues of help. Please know we feel you are a blessing in our lives."

"Thank you for speaking with me the other day. I felt better after talking with you. Also for the info you sent me. Priceless."

"Thank you for all you did on my behalf! It really changed my life!"
